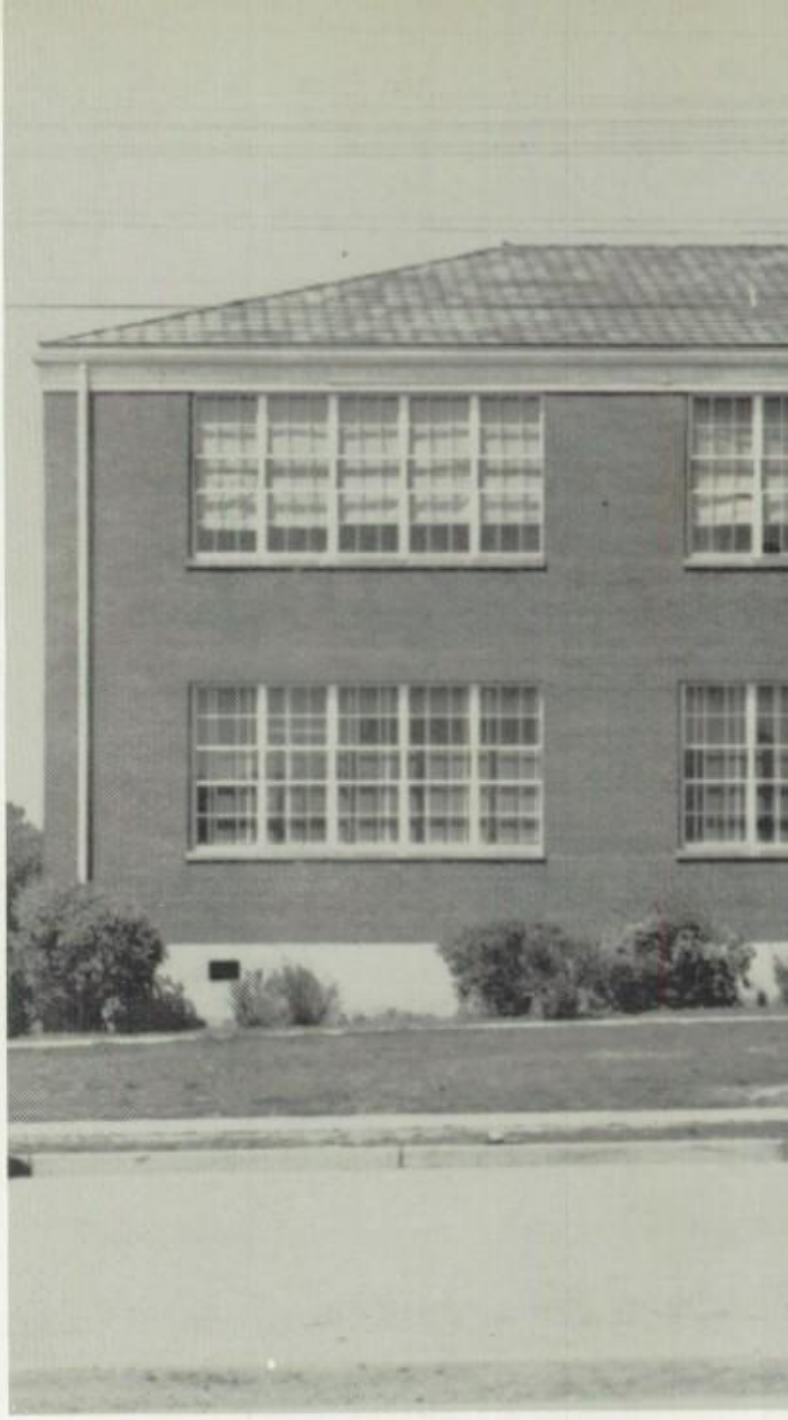
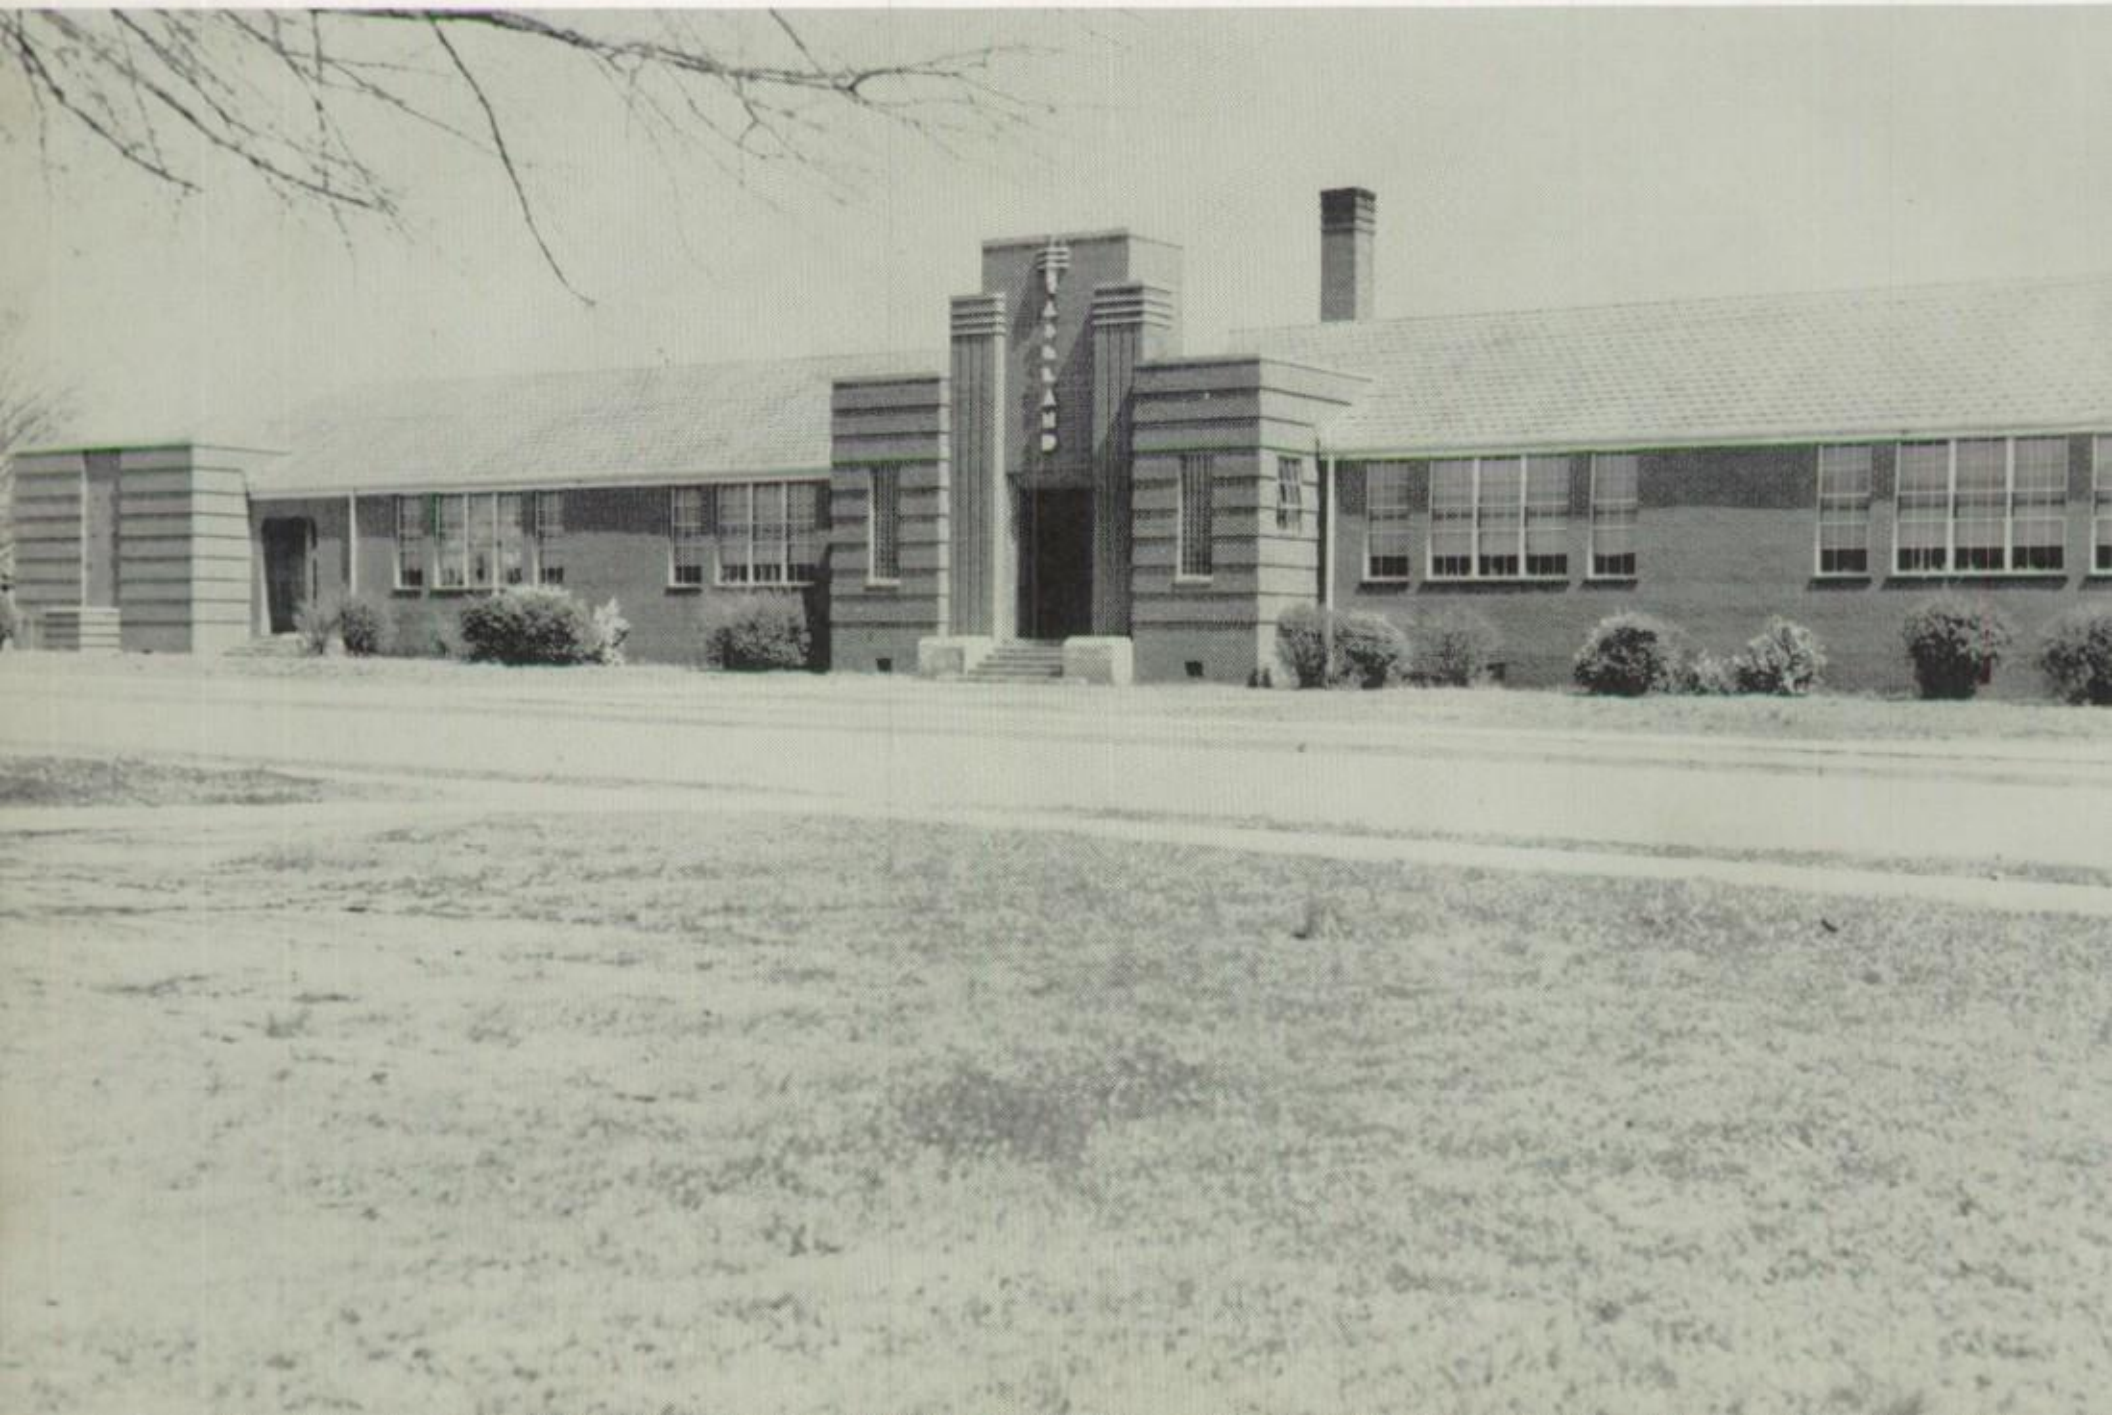
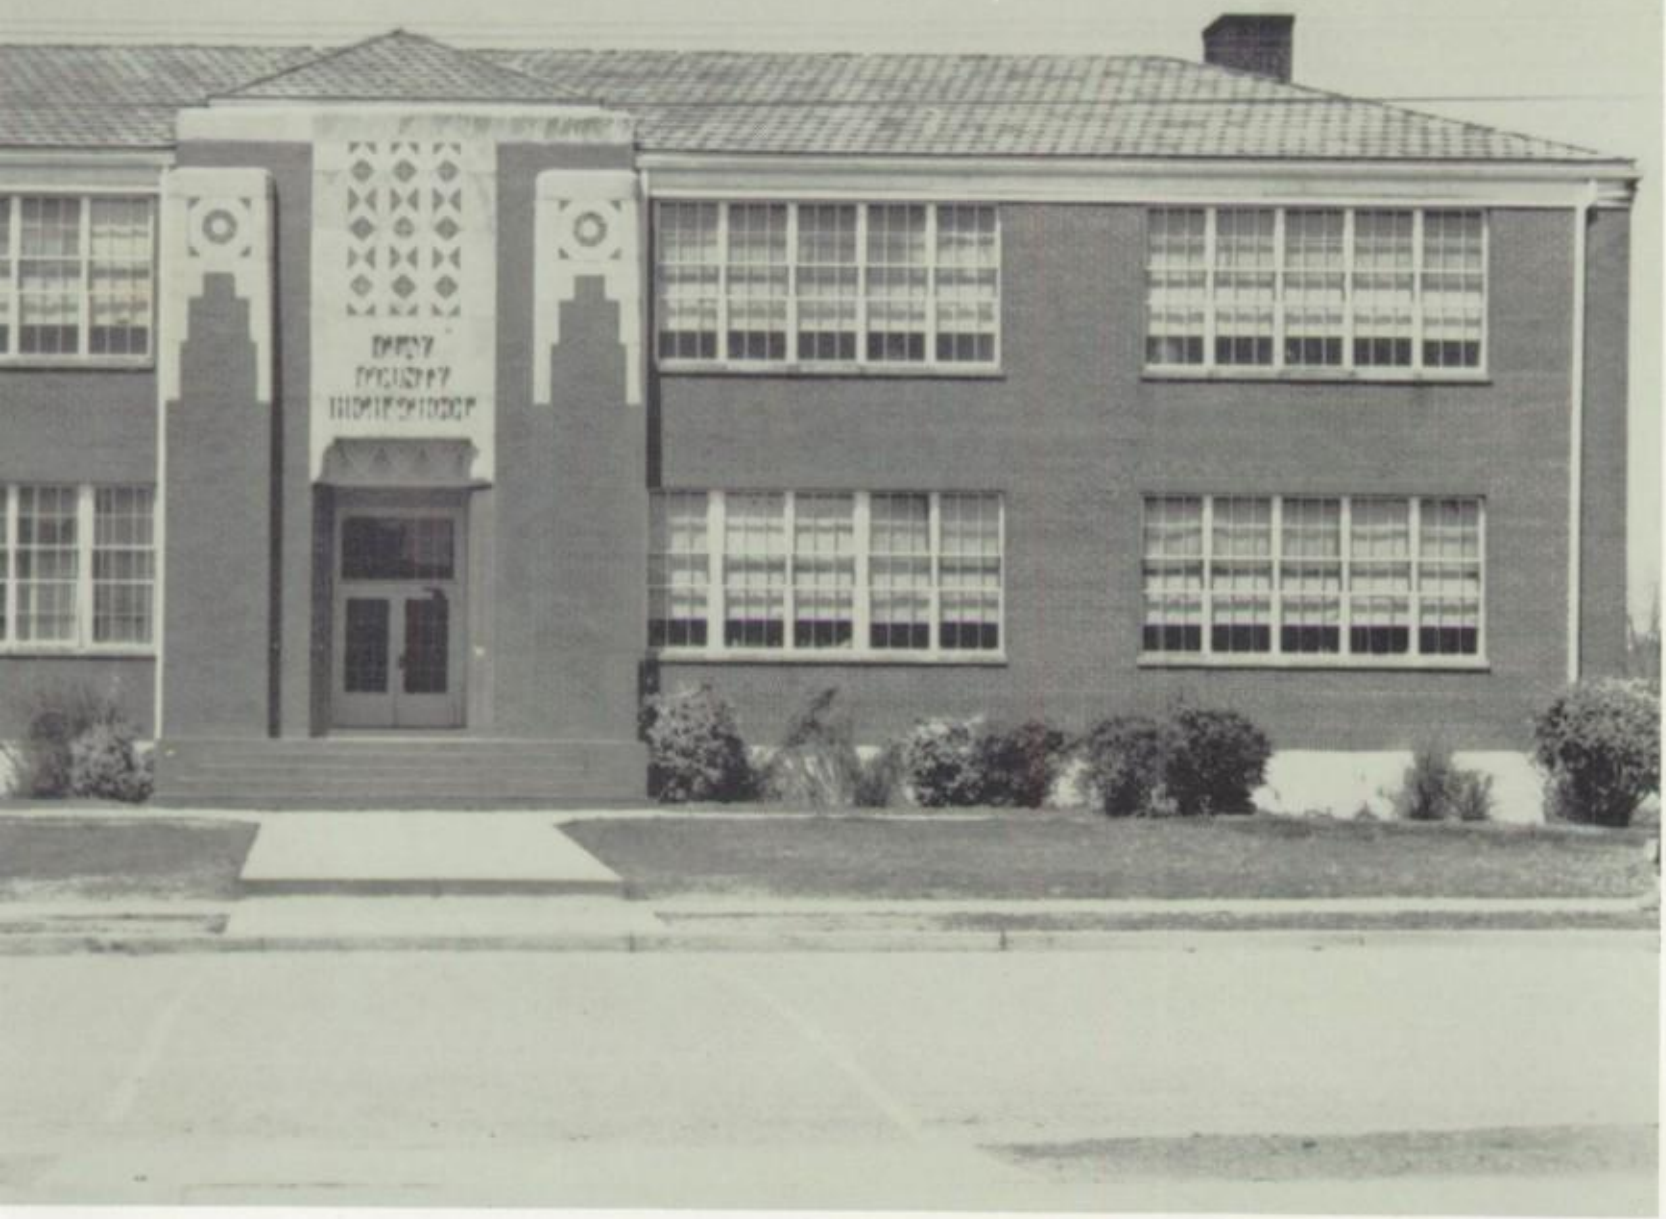
To our parents, without whose assistance, guidance, encouragement, and love, we could have never come this far in life, we, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, dedicate this volume of Clayco Hilites as a token of our grateful appreciation.

On the Southwest Side of Ashland
Stands our school, Clay County High.
Through its portals pass daily
Those with hopes, ambitions high.
Truth and knowledge we are seeking
For the game of life to play.
All the things for better living
We are learning every day.

So, here's to you, our Alma Mater
May you through the storm break free;
And in sorrow or in triumph
We will look to thee.







In the three years that I have been Principal of Clay County High School, I have had the opportunity to work with you in many ways. You have helped make your school better. Our faculty appreciates you and joins with me in saying we hope our work with you has meant as much to you as it has to us.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the staff, faculty, and advertisers. Without their help, this sixteenth volume of Clayco Hilites would have been impossible.

I hope, as the years pass by, this book will recall the happy days and precious memories of 1959.
